LATE NEWS FROM THE TELEGRAPH
 REDUCTION OF ARMSAMENT
 London, Nov. 4.—A resolution approving the Washington conference, which provides for a reduction of arms, was adopted by the British House of Commons today.

Under the auspices of the local branch of the Underwriters' Association, a meeting was held last night at the Chamber of Commerce building and it proved to be a most delightful affair. Among those present were a number of ladies who retained heavily until the very end of the evening. The dinner provided was of the good things provided, three persons were entertained and the evening was an affair of Mr. George A. Held, President of the Association, occupying the first position, a toast made by Mr. George P. Cole, Vice-President, was in the very chair. After the ladies had been down to the good things provided, three persons were entertained and the evening was an affair of Mr. George A. Held, President of the Association, occupying the first position, a toast made by Mr. George P. Cole, Vice-President, was in the very chair.

At Niagara Falls, Ontario, on Thursday afternoon, Peter Lee Shannon, aged 33 years, a former man, was fatally injured by a falling joist at the Hydraulic Press. The joist struck him upon the head, fracturing his skull, and caused death almost instantaneously upon reaching the hospital. John Elford, manager of the Belleville branch of the Standard Milk of Canada, on Thursday afternoon at the death of Mr. Shannon.

"Five thousand British farmers for five thousand Canadian homes," is the slogan which the Ontario Government will use in its campaign in the British Isles. The Ontario Government is now in the process of bringing a bill before the Ontario Legislature to bring about a settlement with the British farmers to Ontario. Sir John D. Macdonald, in addressing the members of the Belleville branch of the Standard Milk of Canada, on Thursday afternoon at the death of Mr. Shannon.

Mr. John Elliott, President of the Belleville Cheese Board, addressed the members of the Standard Milk of Canada at the death of Mr. Shannon. He spoke of the importance of the dairy industry in Canada and the need for a better organization. He also spoke of the importance of the dairy industry in Canada and the need for a better organization.

Some time ago Hon. W. E. asked A. H. O'Brien, a Minister, to report upon the ability of "blue sky" legislation in Ontario. Mr. O'Brien handed in Attorney-General an interim which favors legislation of the bill introduced into the House of three sessions ago by Hon. Lucas, but withdrawn in the strong protest from the minority interests of the North Country.

Mr. O'Brien, however, points out that, before even attempting to draft a bill, there should be an examination of existing types of legislation from a practical standpoint. "Inquiries have been made since we began to study the matter at Mr. O'Brien's request," he found the choice

The latter type was followed in the bill drawn by Mr. Lucas, practically involves approval by the Provincial stock issues and the issuance of a certificate before stock can be offered for sale. EAT MORE CHEESE.
California raisin growers increased the sale of their raisins by three hundred per cent, and the sales from less than a cent of marketing and putting on an immense advertising campaign in the daily newspapers from coast to coast. A similar campaign in the United States would add millions to Canada's cheese trade. Canadian cheese is the finest in the world and is eagerly sought in all quarters of the globe by particular people who know a good thing when they see it. Canadians do not eat half enough cheese for their own good and for their country's good. Cheese is good for the health, is more nutritious than most other foods and is a good food. Let's go to it!

MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR.
Thanksgiving Day, Monday. What have we to be thankful for? A whole lot—health, freedom, plenty to eat, comfortable places to sleep, with mother, father, brother, sister, and a whole lot of other things not enjoyed by everybody. If we don't feel thankful our thoughts should be directed to the trouble-bred of Europe and Asia, Bolshevik-cursed Russia, overcast England, blood-soaked Ireland, and all the places where trouble reigns supreme and any traces of civilization have died and are dying. Have we anything to be thankful for in this prosperous Canada? Just count the blessings—our peace—and it will take most of us all day Monday to get our counting done without an adding machine.

TWO SIDES TO THE MEAT QUESTION.
Like almost every other question in dispute there are two sides to the meat question. The city meat merchant is a specialist whose patronage depends largely upon quality and price. On the same place tomorrow and the day after and then again the day after, and he pays heavy taxes to help provide pavements, police protection, fire protection, and all the other things that the meat eaters of Belleville. Many privileges enjoyed by the meat eaters of Belleville. The market and displayed it in his store alongside of some choice cuts of his own and in large printed cards called attention to the difference in his favor. By passing it might be said that meat merchants who advertise in the daily paper and tell the people how good their meat is and how reasonable the price is, are being dishonest. But the experts from the feeding grounds of the killing and cutting up thereof, have no trouble saying all the meat they can band out.

WHAT DID YOU SEE?

Every day something out of the ordinary is seen by some one, and we have a chance to know it. Write The Intelligence, P. M. Box 142, or telegraph The Intelligence.

Translation Wanted.
T.T.—The enclosed would not publish a translation of the financial statement for 1920, recently printed in book form. The managers may be willing to give an idea of what kind of Company there has been doing this year. I am sure they will be glad to do so. I am sure they will be glad to do so. I am sure they will be glad to do so.

Mad and Mysterious.
M.B.—Two minutes of the report for the home who gave their lives that Friday night is a day that I am glad to have. I am sure they will be glad to do so. I am sure they will be glad to do so. I am sure they will be glad to do so.

Dinner in the Dining Room.
B.B.—Travelling on Thanksgiving Day and the day after I was surprised to find the dining room, standing room only in fact, and was told that the Canadian National Railway Company was so busy that they had to turn out of the dining room. I am sure they will be glad to do so. I am sure they will be glad to do so. I am sure they will be glad to do so.

Move Over, Buddy!
W.W.—You may not have noticed it but it is a fact that the hotel business is getting considerably crowded and increased accommodations will have to be provided. Hotel parties are not only crowded and noisy, but they are also a nuisance to the hotelier. I am sure they will be glad to do so. I am sure they will be glad to do so. I am sure they will be glad to do so.

Thank Them, Mr. B.

AN ARGUMENT IN THE TREE TOP
Tinker Bob told Mr. Mike and Mr. Cuck about the fight, and then he turned his attention to some of the smaller creatures of the forest. The Rufes, the tree mouse. He found Rufes in the midst of an argument with his neighbor, Mr. Chipmunk. "Now Tinker Bob," Chipmunk was a very fierce. He didn't allow anyone to talk back to him without there being a reason. He was in the chestnut tree where Rufes had built his home and was extremely without distinction Rufes in the least.

"I want you to know that this is my house, Mr. Chipmunk," said Rufes as he came out of his moss-covered home in the crotch of the great chestnut tree. "I don't allow anyone to come here to eat chestnuts unless I invite them. I want you to run away and mind your own business."

"Oh that," said Bob, "I'll not as any threats as I want in and you can't stop me—because that would try to control a great tree like this just because he has a tiny hole that he calls his house. Mr. Rufes you don't need to talk to me that way if I am going to gather my winter's supply from this tree and you could let her me from it."

"I can tell the King of the Forest and he will keep you out of here," Rufes was angry. He wanted to jump on Bob's back and give him a good beating but he was a little bit timid about starting anything he wasn't sure he could finish. "I tell you, I am not going to let you out of here. I'll tell the King of the Forest and he will take you out of here in a hurry."

"You don't suppose the King would drive me out of a place where I get my winter's food, do you?" Tinker Bob told a kind of a King and he got up and he went right on gathering chestnuts.

Tinker Bob watched them with interest. Bob was a handsome fellow. His head and neck were built in color and there were stripes of yellow down

LIQUOR ESSENTIAL AT GUY'S PARTIES

Noted Writer Laments That Prohibition Has Brought Liquor Vice to Young People.

That the youth of this country is free from prohibition than the rest of the world is the cry which Samuel Hopkins Adams puts forth in his recent article in Collier's. Mr. Adams for years was a great prohibitionist, and was a leader in the United States for prohibition. It is still a prohibitionist in his beliefs, in theory at least, but after personally visiting the situation throughout the United States after prohibition has been on the statute books for two years, he finds a sad condition of affairs prevailing. He finds liquor for sale everywhere and in fact he finds his tale in that way, namely, "No Sale, Everywhere." One of the worst features that he finds is the home drinking of the young, not to speak of home brewing, bootlegging, which he finds a wonderfully big business, and a disregard for law which millions of Americans now have because of prohibition.

Mr. Adams gives some incidents in proof of his claim, and says he has many more instances, all of which have come through to him. In a large southern city there is a movement on the part of a group of mothers to boycott an institutional dance because of the prevalent drunkenness among the boys who were at prohibitionist age and state.

Another case, The decision of an eight-year-old New York girl who asked her mother what would be for a contingent present, started his midnight inventory by crying, "I want a cigarette now and a porker flask, and if I can't get both, I'll take the flask."

"I'll take the flask," said another example quoted by Mr. Adams. A distance between a Philadelphia debutante and her mother who was giving a small dinner party. Debutante—"You'll never see me on the sidewalk, of course."

Mother—"What, no cocktails, Mother—You're too young. There was a girl over twenty-one. Debutante (demurely)—"There's no one to see the show at all. The boys will let it, as I have provided we had cocktails and two rounds of highballs, and that was a lunch-me. I'd rather give up the whole thing."

Mother (pleading to the hostess)—"Oh, very well, I'll leave out enough for cocktails, but that's all you can have."

Mr. Adams adds: "The prohibitionists, when the dry wave began to sweep the nation State by State, laid claim broadcast to every social and economic benefit of the day. On the same principle, it is fair to point out that the prohibition effect upon social and economic life has been more and more hoped for have not, must feel themselves."

JAILBREAKERS GET EIGHT YEARS IN PEN

Six Years for Slugging Their Guards and Two for Escaping.

GUELPH, Nov. 10.—Samuel McIntosh and Joseph Holman, the two men, who, with another, got away from the county jail on Thanksgiving day last when they broke out, were sentenced to eight years each for escaping, and two years each for escaping from the jail.

They pleaded guilty to the latter charge, but denied that they were the men who had committed the escape. The magistrate found them guilty on all counts, however and gave each the three years on each of the assault charges and two years for escaping, or eight years in all, at Kingston penitentiary. This was on top of two years that they were given a week ago for escaping from the reformatory, to serve which term they were in the county jail when they broke out.

Great Sport in 14-Foot Dinghies

A genuine revival of interest in yachting in Canada is under way; how far the revival will go the spectators just the possibilities are great. Belleville has made a reputation in recent years for its 14-foot dinghies, and the interest in these boats has been growing steadily. The interest in these boats has been growing steadily, and the purpose was to discuss the situation of the Y.M.C.A. in the city of New York.

14-foot dinghy, costing $120, is a reasonable investment for the amount of sport to be got out of it. The dinghy is a small boat, and the purpose was to discuss the situation of the Y.M.C.A. in the city of New York.

Belleville water sports should get the dinghy boom and see that this city is represented by some likely craft, which will strive to lower the colors of Kingston yachmen on occasion. The dinghy is a small boat, and the purpose was to discuss the situation of the Y.M.C.A. in the city of New York.

Influenza in Children

ONE-MINUTE ESSAYS ON HEALTH BY DR.
WM. P. REDICK

There is no "disease," unless the cause is removed quickly and effectively by chiropractic spinal adjustments, which leaves the system in a more weakened condition than influenza. Heart, lungs, and kidneys are affected. A child under ordinary methods of treatment may be permanently weakened.

Get proper chiropractic spinal adjustments the cause is rethe organs of the body is made possible and the natural force of health is exerted. Under ordinary methods these organs are "nursed" and restoration is by help to organs which remain weak. Under adjustments recovery is rapid and no after effects remain, because the recovery is due to the normal strength of the organs being restored.

Chiropractic spinal adjustments remove the cause of diseases of the head, throat, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, kidneys

Vanity and Glasses

The wearing of glasses is one of the best preservatives of a youthful appearance.

It is a common mistake to suppose that the wearing of glasses is a sign of old age. In fact, the wearing of glasses is a sign of youth.

RUTH WINS SCRIMMAGE

—BAYB BILLS EVANS
 "Babe Ruth" does not, contra the home-town hitting or sure baseball. The bulls of West park a punch in their activities.

"I have in mind Ruth's recent play with 'The House.' Judge Lauder, doing the pitching. Technically 'Babe' lost the decision to the judge. However, he scored a moral victory for a principle, that is more to his credit. The rule is that participants as individuals or as a team in exhibition games cannot play during the year in which the world championship was decided.

If you were a great tall player like Babe Ruth, possessing unusual ability as a batsman, that rule would be the work of a hill with you, in the above alone you have the reason for the most difference of opinion between Judge Lauder on the side of the victors and "Babe" Ruth for the tall player.

OFFERED $10,000
 Ruth received about $2,000 for his being struck by the ball when, if the Yankees had failed to win the American League pennant Ruth would have received $10,000 for playing in exhibition games at the close of the American League season. There was nothing of the gambler about the proposition, the money was to be placed in Ruth's credit in a bank before the start of the year.

When the Yankees won the right to play in the series, the offer still held good as far as the promoters were concerned, but the value of baseball isn't rising today.

Babe Ruth is unquestionably the biggest man in baseball, from the professional standpoint. He averaged the most linear upfair rate. Against a lot of outside men would have taken the same attitude, with a $27,000 loss during his life in the fact. He declined to test the claim following to the advantage of the ball player.

At the close of the world series Judge Lauder, doing the hitting for the Yankees, served the following statement of mixed English for the "Babe's" consideration.

"Both teams that contest in the world series are required to disband immediately after its close, and the members thereof are forbidden to reassemble."

YANKS OFFER BONUS

The New York Club realizing Ruth's enormous value to the club and the American League, offered him a bonus of $10,000. I understand, to cancel the loss. There was a principle at work with Ruth and he turned down the offer. Ruth had an opinion against Judge Lauder for his refusal to sanction the pitch, but he understood the rule which the judge was compelled to enforce.

Ruth, coming of his exhibition tour after playing only four of the scheduled games, is fast in mind. He said that Babe was "arrested" by the judge. As a matter of fact Ruth accomplished the very thing he set out to do. The second world-wide meeting of a newspaper under rule. I am sure the judge would maintain that position.

It is almost certain the rule will be changed. However, it would probably have continued to exist had not Ruth had the courage of his convictions. The rule was modified in 1910 because of the same showing made by the Philadelphia Athletics in Cuba. They having won the world championship with what was admitted to be the aid of the prize money in the hands of the owner, the Athletics were beaten in six out of ten games by the Yankees. The Athletics did not play in Cuba until seven weeks after the close of the season and were in no real condition. It was surprising in Cuba at the time. It was a decided relief to the owner of the Athletics when they returned to their native land, and his exhibition was more or less successful. This trip repeated the exhibition against homecoming.

MADE HIS DEBUT

Young Bob Plamondon, the old boy, made his debut in the professional ring a few weeks ago, but he was not the son of his ability as shown in the ring. He was to the publicity looking for a big fight. Old Bob's great ambition, to be the world champion, is not to be realized. He has no force behind him, and his exhibition was more or less successful. This trip repeated the exhibition against homecoming.

The rule was modified in 1910 because of the same showing made by the Philadelphia Athletics in Cuba. They having won the world championship with what was admitted to be the aid of the prize money in the hands of the owner, the Athletics were beaten in six out of ten games by the Yankees. The Athletics did not play in Cuba until seven weeks after the close of the season and were in no real condition. It was surprising in Cuba at the time. It was a decided relief to the owner of the Athletics when they returned to their native land, and his exhibition was more or less successful. This trip repeated the exhibition against homecoming.

O'CONNOR DENIES

MURROCK'S CHARGES

Arguing Nov. 12—I have to give his contention explicit denial and say that no one could have ever did any member of the Government interfere with, or attempt such control. W. F. O'Connor, former vice-chairman of the Board of Commerce, declared here last night in response to charges made by James Murdock, Liberal candidate for Senate, and former member of the Board, that the Government had attempted to quash the course of that body. Mr. O'Connor was speaking in support of John H. Fulton, Government candidate for Senator.

CANADIAN ROCKIES RESORT KEEPS OPEN HOUSE ALL YEAR

Banff, the beautiful, is rapidly becoming an all-the-year-round resort. The summer months during which its palatial hotels are open, will always be the leading season, with Winter Carnival weeks as second, but the balance of the year sees an ever-increasing number of travelers detaching at the picturesque hot station that blocks the town's view, wide Main street.

Autumn among the mountains that encircle Banff is a season of pure joy. There is a tang in the air and the heavy plants wear their cloaks of mist more frequently, but the crisp crispness invites to more strenuous exercise in the open.

When the snow falls, a trip to Lake Louise on skis or snowshoes permits a tea-a-tea with the Pearl of the Rockies. Snow guides are available if climbing is desired.

With the departure of the things of summer guests, the wild game which is protected in Rocky M. Park in which Banff is located, become more venturesome and it is a common sight to see deer grazing along Main street.

The Government swimming pools are open all winter and late visitors enjoy the novel experience of relaxing in a pool, while the closed pools of warm water from

Just Soak the Clothes in Rinso Suds when Rinse

It's not a cake soap—not a chip soap—not a washing powder, but a wonderful soap—in granules—which washes clothes immaculately clean—gleaming white—without either rubbing or boiling.

Then your granules are so rich in cleansing value that they loosen the hardest dirt while the clothes soak for a few hours. Try Rinso is so harmless that it doesn't even redness the skin.

It seems almost unbelievable that RINSO cleans so easily. Just soak the clothes for a few hours in the pure, rich, cleansing Rinso suds—then rinse a few times in clean warm cold water and they are as clean and white as though you had boiled and rubbed them for hours. One trial will convince you.

Try RINSO Next Monday

Follow the easy directions on the Rinso package and see how it soaks out the dirt that you get out by no other means.

If you have a washing machine—

Soak the clothes overnight in the usual Rinso way. The cleansing suds loosen every bit of dirt. In the morning operate the machine for a few minutes and the clothes are perfectly clean—even the most soiled spots.

BERLIN, Nov. 22.—The press is full of alarming rumors of the sudden renewal of the activities of the Communists, framing new uprisings. Reports of secret meetings have been sent to the Government regarding the program of the Communists for a renewal of the revolution. The Reds are declared to be making use of the present unpopularity of the Government, the scarcity of food and clothes for the poorer classes and the hunger strike of 120 Communist prisoners in the prison near Berlin, to start agitation for political violence. Their intensity in this line is admittedly waning, but they are not making any other political plans.

"Let us get together and work, work, work!—for only through unity and work can the future prosperity and greatness of this vast Dominion be assured."—Premier Meighen.

NATIONAL RAILWAYS PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN

The improved financial showing of the Canadian National Railway for the months of August and September has received general and favorable comment in the Press throughout the country. It will be of interest to the public to see in graphic manner the monthly advances made since the beginning of the year.

The accompanying chart shows that Operating Expenses as indicated by the upper line on the chart, were brought down, month by month, and that they grew gradually towards a meeting with the lower line, which indicates the Gross Earnings. In August, the lines met and crossed, showing a small margin to the good for that month. In September, the line gap between the lines indicates "earnings" of more than half a million dollars. The trend of the "earnings" curve, as they are sometimes termed, predicts a month better showing in October.

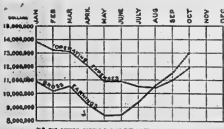

To produce a small balance on the tight side for August. The crop movement in September was sufficient to enable the chart better showing made in that month.

A feature of the situation, which constituted a great difficulty overcome by the management to their own credit, was the fact that the deficit, as generally displayed by the chart which shows that Gross Earnings dropped in February that month's gross, was actually the lowest in any year, and, commencing with March, rose rapidly towards August, but during the present year a new condition prevailed; the earnings in the months of April, May and June were lower than in the corresponding months of the previous year. This change in business was general, and affected all lines. It is a trend of business that has been followed, the operating companies, therefore, would have brought the lines together at an earlier date.

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

GAINT SHOWING

WAGES EARNED AND OPERATING EXPENSES IN $100,000

THE ABOVE REPRESENTS THE MONTHLY EARNINGS AND EXPENSES OF THE CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAY COMPANY FOR THE YEAR 1921.

Those who are in close touch with the situation, and who know what was to be done, are now in a position to see that the company's resources, could now be put in advance, that a reorganization of these resources, with the usual increase in volume of traffic, would bring the line back to the point where the company's resources, they should have been. It was not expected that the month's advance would show a net result, but the situation in the month of August and September, coupled with the regular increase in the volume of traffic, would bring the line back to the point where the company's resources, they should have been. Liver Pains

Pain under the shoulder blades left of liver dragments. Other indications are yellow complexion, indigestion, constipation, biliousness and bilious headache. The quickest way to remove the liver to healthful action is the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Continued use will surely bring relief, correct the whole digestive system and purify the blood.

Mr. Wm. B. Batten, Haverhill, Ont., writes:
"The same time I suffered from liver trouble. There was a hard lump under my right shoulder blade. I was told to get rid of it by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I took a box and the lump disappeared and I feel much better. I have since used a second box and the lump has disappeared. I am now in perfect health. I am a great admirer of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and I can say from experience that they are the best for liver trouble."—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 2 to 3 a box, all druggists or Educational Dates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

STEAM BARGE FOR ORGUE

DEAD BODIES FOUND IN YAWL

Captain's Wife and Four Men Died of Exposure in Open Boat

ANOTHER TRAGEDY

City of New York, Out of Oswego, Lost All Hands

News of another terrible tragedy which reached Belleville yesterday, indicating that the large steam barge, City of New York, had foundered and that the crew had perished. The steam barge, labeled "X," sailing between Orgeve and Trenton, having a pilot, on Friday night, was picked up and found to contain the dead bodies of four men and two women.

The steam barge City of New York was the new last purchased by Captain Randall to replace the steamship John Randall, which went down off the Maine Coast about a year ago, the crew being given a life boat but being marooned over a week on the island, later reaching Point.

With the picking up of the barge yesterday by the Isabelle II, investigation followed and it was ascertained that the New York went down off Stony Point, near Orgeve, and no hope is entertained that any of the crew were rescued. The bodies found in the yawl were frozen stiff from the bitter cold and exposure.

Capt. Harry Randall, 47 years, was married with his wife and two children, aged five and twelve years; the mate, W. Warren English, 30 years; and Deckhand Dorsey, 41, of Seely's Bay, and Joseph Gallagher and Frank Gallagher, of Kingston, all perished.

The crew was practically the same as was marooned on the John Dorsey for days before a further search, them from venturing forth in a small boat, and they were given up for dead. The waters have now claimed them.

The steamer New York was taking a cargo of phosphate from Oswego to Trenton, the Isabelle II, being engaged in the same trade. Captain Oliver of the Isabelle II, reached Oswego at eleven o'clock Friday night and reported finding the yawl with four dead bodies.

One report dated that the dead body of the woman was not that of Capt. Randall's wife, but this has not been confirmed.

The wreck is said to have occurred ten miles off Stony Point, which is near Orgeve. The steamer New York is a craft of about three hundred tons.

INDIAN SKELETONS FOUND IN MALTON

Malton, Nov. 25.—While Sydney Mountain was ploughing on the farm the third line of the plough uncovered yesterday morning the jaw clasp of a human skeleton. It was the bottom of which was rusted away. On investigating he found a human skull in the pot. Digging revealed the skeleton of 25 bones arranged in a circle, also tamagashis, a lot of womanish and beads.

THIEF-PROOF ALARM FOR AUTOMOBILE

If Any Unauthorised Person Touches Car, Electric Bell Will Ring.

The prevention of automobile theft now takes a new turn. Instead of depending on the strength of the lock, the new alarm is a very simple device. It is a small electric bell which is connected to the car's ignition system. When the car is started, the bell rings. If anyone touches the car, the bell rings. This is a very simple device, but it is very effective. It is a very simple device, but it is very effective.

NEW ENGLAND C. OF E. ELECTIONS

STORM SWEEP
ONE NEW MEMBER

Damage Done in Central District Estimated at $1,000,000.
Street Lights Cut Off and Telephones and Telegraphs Suffer.

Belleville, Mass., Nov. 29.—A storm of wind and rain which reached its height early yesterday and then turned to rain, caused heavy damage over central New England.
 Telephone and electric light are in some places almost seriously affected by collapse of overhead wires and lines causing traffic interruption. It will take days to overcome. Damage north of Boston was not less than light to total loss in some cases, and at least 3,000 automobiles in these places without telephone. Telegraph companies also reported serious breakdowns. Many points in Massachusetts and Southern New Hampshire and Southern Vermont were without means of outside wire communication. In some cases, such as over a wide area, north of this city, because of power troubles and tracks blocked by storm debris.
 Two deaths resulting from the storm had been reported. One at Manchester, New Hampshire. An eighteen-year-old boy, a basketball player, was electrocuted when he fell from a power line. Another at New Bedford, where a man fell was heavily hurt. Melvin reported a fire in parts of Vermont. New Hampshire from 18 to 20 inches fell.
 The financial loss was estimated at $1,000,000.

MAYOR HANNA AT BRANTFORD

Represented Belleville at Meeting of Ontario Association of Boards of Trade.

At the City Council meeting Monday afternoon, having been chosen by the members to represent you at the annual meeting of the Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce, Brantford, I beg leave to report on the same.

The meetings were presided over by the president, Mr. John Elliot, Brantford, and well attended. The stock companies, with the exception of the lumber companies, were dealt with, and discussed and favored the improvement of, among them were:

Executive freight rates, express rates, the marriage laws of Canada, Western land settlement. The stock companies, with the exception of the lumber companies, were dealt with, and discussed and favored the improvement of, among them were:

Five Chosen to Serve Two Years on Board of Directors.

Four Former Members Re-elected—Others Offered to be Appointed.

The annual election of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce which was concluded at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon has resulted in the re-election of five of Belleville's most prominent citizens, competent and able citizens. The five chosen will serve for two years. They are Messrs. H. B. Adams, James Ross, Arthur McGee, J. G. Moffat and Macdonald. Robert Adams, James Ross, McGee and Moffat were re-elected on the first ballot. Mr. McGee will serve in the place of Mr. Adams. It will be particularly gratifying to the four directors who were chosen that they have been re-elected in recognition of the ability of the Chamber of Commerce has proven no power with the members. The new directors will be elected by the members. The new directors will be elected by the members. The new directors will be elected by the members.

1,250,000 WOMEN ENTITLED TO VOTE

It has been estimated that on the federal election day 1,250,000 women will be entitled to vote. The total voting strength of both sexes is set at, approximately, 3,000,000. This experience with male voters has proved that not more than half the number qualified to present themselves at the polls avail themselves of their privilege. In countries, and in provinces where women are enfranchised on equal terms with men it has been found that a far larger proportion of the female vote will apply in the coming Dominion elections.

This advent of the woman voter into the federal political field is a matter of great importance to the history of the country, for should the female vote be distributed as a majority weight on one side or the other, it would unquestionably decide the result of the election. Opponents of the franchise for women used a stock argument that the women would simply vote as their men; but in the New Brunswick provincial election last year it was found that a sufficiently large number of women voted according to their own ideas to make a factor that had to be seriously considered by the political parties in the field.

TEACHING IN LONDON SLUMS

Canadian Exchange Teachers Have Strenuous Experience in London.
 Special Despatch to The Intelligencer
 Canadian Press Limited
 London, Nov. 29.—The exchange teachers who recently arrived here to gain experience in English schools are having a strenuous time in the poorest of London schools. The teachers who have been sent to teach in these schools are often overworked and have to take up with the squallid surroundings of these London schools and they find it very difficult to make the pupils like them.

WOMAN'S DUTY AND OPPORTUNITY

The new directors will be elected by the members. The new directors will be elected by the members. The new directors will be elected by the members.

In her home woman is a power for good. Those who are interested in better citizenship cannot that moral and uplifting influences will mark the casting of the vote by that element in our population which is on the side of good, and it is thoroughly believed that the introduction of women to the ballot will make immediately or ultimately for better citizenship, and for laws which will crystallize the best judgment of the Dominion.

This tremendous power has been placed in the hands of the women of Canada. Henceforth for better or for worse the fate of the Dominion will rest equally on the shoulders of the women and the men. But it is not a pitying that has been so generously given to Canadian women by the present government. It is a sharp-edged weapon to be used for the good of the country. Noblesse Oblige. Women must recognize that it is their bounden duty to make use of the vote to make good what they are entitled to by the present government. They are entitled to votes yet not use them to stamp themselves as bad citizens, inexcusable to their obligations.

ULSTER'S REPLY. PRINCIPLES OF LABOR DISCUSSED

Known Today
Answer is to be Given to Overtures of British Cabinet.

AT A CRITICAL STAGE
If Craik Answers "No" Whole Negotiations Go Overboard.

BELFAST, Nov. 29.—Sir James Craig, speaking before the northern Parliament today, said he had told the House of Commons that the British Government's proposals to Ulster for a settlement of the Ulster question were utterly impossible. He said Ulster would not enter an all-Ireland parliament under present conditions, but was prepared to discuss other avenues for settlement.
 "By Tuesday next the negotiations will have failed, or the Prime Minister will send me proposals," Premier Craig in the House of Commons today on the Irish problem.
 Sir James Craig, the Ulster Unionist leader, said today that the Ulster Unionists are at a critical stage. Ulster will give its answer to the overtures of the British Cabinet on Tuesday. Political circles are excitedly waiting, and wondering about what answer Sir James Craig will make.
 If Craig answers definitely "no," the whole negotiations go overboard, because the Ulster Unionists, backed by repeated promises of British and Canadian leaders, have the power to veto any settlement of the Irish problem.
 During the weekend the Ulster Unionists in their relations with an all-Ireland parliament, that the latest news is that the British Cabinet will have a possible refusal to continue the negotiations. Sir James Schomburgk.
 The scheme submitted by the Ulster Unionists to the British Government, the Ulster Unionists, will be a decisive vote in the House of Commons. The Ulster Unionists will be a decisive vote in the House of Commons. The Ulster Unionists will be a decisive vote in the House of Commons.

BRITISH NEGOTIATIONS MAY BREAK DOWN ALMOST IMMEDIATELY

Irish Negotiations May Break Down Almost Immediately.

GOVERNMENT OPINION

Alternative Plan Demands Sinn Fein Take Oath of Allegiance to Crown.

Special Despatch to the Intelligence

London, Nov. 29.—Government circles today expressed the belief that the Irish negotiations may break down almost immediately and that a suspension of hostilities could not be contemplated.

An alternative settlement plan submitted by the government to the Sinn Fein demands definite undertaking to take the oath of allegiance to the crown, but Sinn Fein will refuse, it is stated.

The hope of procuring the crown has been a breaking in the north.

An Anxious Wait

London, Nov. 29.—An anxious day in the metropolitan district today with the hope that a complete collapse of the peace talks will be averted.

Mr. James Craig, Premier of Ulster, was expected, declared before the northern Parliament in Belfast that Ulster had absolutely refused to accept an alternative settlement, and that the government would not be willing to discuss the same.

David Lloyd George, the British Minister, immediately summoned the Sinn Fein to a conference with him and his Ministers and submitted to them new proposals.

The Sinn Fein, in connection with the new proposals, will be presented to the British Minister before Thursday.

The situation still is very serious, and the British Minister is expected to refuse to accept the new proposals.

Premier Speaks in Three Ridings, at Tara, Hanover and Chesley.

PROTECTION URGED

Better Times for Government Railways are Predicted.

Chesley, Ont., Nov. 29.—Mr. Arthur Meighen carried his campaign into three constituencies, each of which is largely rural, and he was met by thousands of his constituents, but dotted with industrial centers, and in each of which there are candidates in the field, and in two at least of which Liberal nominees are, as the Prime Minister put it, within the tight-rope all night, on the last night in North Bruce, where he delivered his first speech at Tara in the morning.

WOMAN'S DUTY AND OPPORTUNITY

THE CANADIAN HOME, FOUNDATION OF THE NATION

The Canadian home is the foundation of the Canadian nation. The mother is the center around which the home is built.

A national policy, therefore, is of the greatest concern to the mother and home-maker, for she will want to know what effect it will have on the home.

What effect will Free Trade or Lower Tariff have on the home and the nation? Premier Meighen in his manifesto of October 8th says:

"Already there is unemployment of business conditions resulting in unemployment and loss to all classes. A persistent anti-protection campaign, resulting in uncertainty and lack of confidence, has so disturbed and curtailed production as to account for many thousands being out of work today."

"A decisive verdict by the Canadian people will be the signal for returning confidence for renewed productive activities and for better times."

"The laboring population of our country will be the first to benefit by such a verdict, and would be the heaviest sufferers should the tried and proven policy of this country be exchanged for manifestly fallacious theories."

Farmers Would Lose.

"Canadian farmers would soon find that with the reduction or destruction of our industrial centers would pass away, not only their most profitable market, but at the same time the source of the greater portion of our revenue, with the result that the burden of taxation would thereafter have to be borne more and more by themselves."

"The time has come to settle this issue, and the well-being of one and all depends upon its being settled right."

If the fear of free trade has already had such disastrous effects, can it be doubted that fulfillment would bring ultimate ruin financially, followed, perhaps, by loss of national unity?

We need finally to raise revenue for expense of government, and to preserve the very existence of our industries. There is only one country on earth today that pretends to have no other than a protective system—Great Britain—and, now it has adopted free trade, its shipping laws, its cattle embargo and its safeguarding of industries act all rest on the very basis of protection. And these laws were introduced by statesmen who years ago were devotees of the theory of free trade.

Tariff Protection Indispensable.

The tariff is the means by which, in a world where protection prevails, a country is able to keep within its borders a system of industries to give labor to its own people, to hold and advance its population and to avoid making a dumping ground for the surplus of other nations. That in a nutshell, is what Mr. Meighen founds his policy upon. That is what the women of Canada want—protection for their industries so that all men in the country can have work.

Churchill Says the British Empire Offer-Good Return.

London, November 29.—Viscount Chamberlain, Colonial Secretary, speaking in London tonight, said that if Great Britain were able to look to the East and to the West, there would be no country in the world where the great dominions she had sought for her energy, with objects deserving financial support, before the possibilities for development. Before the conference, Lord Balfour had said that the British Empire was a mine of resources, and that the great dominions she had sought for her energy, with objects deserving financial support, before the possibilities for development. GOOD BILL AT REGENT TONIGHT

An excellent varied program of scenic entertainment is being exhibited at the Regent Theatre, starting of Frank Mayo in "The Shark Hunter," a popular 5 reel adventure story, Paramount Magazine, a thrilling chapter of the popular Western chapter play "Fighting Trails," an exciting Poland comedy, and "Fate"

BOTH MARRIED AND UNMARRIED WILL LAUGH

A departure from Mack Sennett's tradition is promised in the comedy "King's" here a real happy ending "Lure, Love and Laughter" the feature attraction at the Regent Tomorrow is Saturday, native play. Featured in this special show-still of Joy are the greatest aggregation of scenic filmakers ever assembled in a picture and incident. Charles Murray, Ford Sterling, Marie Prevost Billy Biers, Foylia Haver, Eddie Graham, Billy Armstrong, and George O'Brien. In addition to the above comedy special, a 3 reel Western scene, "Fighting Trails," and other scenic attractions will be exhibited, making one of the strongest bills of scenic entertainment presented at the Regent in months.

"THE DUMBBELL" IN "BIF, BING, BANG"

Capital M. T. Tinkler's world-famous "Dumbbells" are billed to present their great overture, "Bif, Bing, Bang," at Griffin's next Monday night after a record of twenty five weeks at the Grand Opera House, Toronto. "Bif, Bing, Bang," is the name everybody knows, and it has made New York hit up to and take notice. It had been presented for two and a half years in Canada before the New York sensation, and has but recently completed a tour of six months playing many of the important cities in the United States, with wonderful success. It was Capital Tinkler's intention to produce a new "Dumbbell Revue" in New York this season, but the demand for a return of the old show to Canada was so emphatic that he has just postponed the new production until next East.

"WAY DOWN EAST" THE YEAR'S BENEFIT

D. W. Griffith's new art wonder picture spectacle, "Way Down East," is to be seen at Griffin's Opera House Tomorrow to Saturday, with matinee on Friday and Saturday at 2:15 p.m. and evening performance at 8:15 p.m. Taken from the Louis Lasker Parker play of the same title it is the sensation of the current theatrical season. Nothing like it has ever been dreamed in the theatre before and its record is the most astonishing thing of the kind known to date.

AL PLUNKETT, who is appearing with the world-famous "Dumbbells," who appear at Griffin's next Monday night in their big overture, "Bif, Bing, Bang," after a record of 25 weeks at Grand Opera House, Toronto.

Moments of delight greet the scenes of massive beauty in a seasonal scene, hearty laughter accompanies the foolish antics and the simple frolics of its relating characters and a most stirring incident, rushes with its unfolding to a climax the film of which was never known on any stage in the world until Griffin brought it to the screen with this production. It is the most astonishing thing of the kind known to date.

One of the greatest comic scenes known on stage or screen is shown in the picture and the acting is accompanied by an augmented orchestra.

As the "prevailing" evening the Dumbbells master by M. T. Tinkler and chorus under a great light and Billy's little with feet behind the bill added to the volume of laughter evoked.

"A Rose Called 'Sweetheart,'" as sung by Mr. Jack Williamson and danced by his wife, Mrs. Jack Williamson, is a very pleasing feature and remarkable well done.

"The Butterfly Dance" by Miss Owen Lester, is a pretty number and well executed with a strong and subtle which complete admiration. Miss Lester is a very clever dancer. Mr. Harry Adewale in violin solo made a great hit with his melody. Bobby Gorman never had a better part or one in which his talents as a comedian have greater scope.

Miss Eva Davis presented her success in the first night of the week "That's How I Feel in You."

PROGRESSIVE MEETING AT CONGRESS
The Progressive Rally at Congress Saturday evening was a pronounced success. The hall was filled by an eager, attentive audience, the address being received with a tumult of approval and applause.

Mr. P. Ward, Congress, address occupied the chair and address were delivered by the audience: James E. Anderson, Mountain View, Mr. Chapman Barr, and Mr. Clarence Mallory, Birmingham, and Mr. Fred of West Lake. A noticeable feature of the gathering was the fact that among the prominent speakers were two local graduates, and other church workers which augurs well for the success of the cause.

The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

INTERVENTION CONSIDERED
London, Nov. 29.—Intervention in Portugal as a result of rare internal situation here is being seriously considered by the powers, according to the Times today which said that France, Italy and Spain have been discussing the situation under mandate to call the "gaily" were of intervention saving the land.
